OUR ANNOUNCEMENTS

On a sad note Heartland Presbytery learned from the Reverend Don Fisher that one of our honorably retired minister members, the Reverend Jo Austin Lininger, passed from the church militant to the church triumphant on Palm Sunday. Mr. Lininger born in Cowles, Nebraska in 1920, was baptized in 1922 and ordained in April of 1949 by the then Presbytery of Laramie, now Wyoming. He transferred his membership to Heartland Presbytery in March of 1998 and was for some years parish associate at Second Presbyterian. He was preceded in death by his wife Virginia and son Jerry. He is survived by his son Jack, daughter-in-law Karen, and many other family and friends. Heartland Presbytery covets your prayers for Mr. Lininger's family and friends. Condolences may be sent to Jack and Karen Lininger, 4834 Lupine Lane NW, Silverdale, WA 98383 or email jacklininger@hotmail.com.

Just a little message...the Heartland website is updated, but it is a work in progress. As part of my new job I have been given the task of reworking our website. I have removed outdated information and am working on the format now. I hope to have it completed it within a month, and thanks to everyone for their patience. (submitted by Callie Riggs)

Heartland Directories: As most of you know the new directories are here and available to be picked up. However, it has been brought to our attention that some information has been left out. Under the Pastors tab there are no cell phone numbers. If you would like your cell number listed, please let Jessie Echavarria, administrative assistant at secretary@heartlandpby.org know, so that we can add this information to the "directory changes" that will be submitted at the next June presbytery meeting.

Order your Presbyterian Planning Calendars today!

Presbyterians for Earth Care invite you to be a part of our 2013 Conference “Ethical Earth Care: Keeping Creation Sacred.” We look forward to gathering together as co-stewards in Creation care during this challenging time where it seems there is little respect for our Sacred Sphere. The conference will be October 16 – 19 at the amazingly green Ferncliff Camp and Conference Center in Little Rock, Arkansas. We invite you to gather together to reflect upon—perhaps even create—an ethic of Earth care which seeks the well-being of all Creation. We look forward to working together toward this ethic at our PEC conference. We invite you to be a part of this amazing work, with shared wisdom from many different prophets and leaders of our time, including our plenary leader Larry Rasmussen, Th.D., Reinhold Niebuhr Professor Emeritus of Social Ethics, Union Theological Seminary, NYC, and author of Earth-Honoring Faith. Please go to the PEC website at www.presbyearthcare.org for more information and to register for the conference. (submitted by Diane Waddell)

Are we good stewards of God's creation? On page C8 in the Faith Section of the Saturday, April 20, KC Star appears an article asking just that. This article quotes Carol Meyer (executive director of the Sustainable Sanctuary Coalition of Greater KC) who explains SSC's 100 Sermons for the Earth initiative. This initiative is a call for clergy of all faiths to preach about or talk about earth care. They are being asked to give at least one sermon or talk sometime during 2013 dedicated to the importance of Earth-care as a spiritual, moral, and religious imperative. So far 63 KC area clergy from a variety of faiths have already agreed to do so. For more info, link to <http://ssckc.org/faith-and-ecology/100-sermon-for-the-earth/> (submitted by Leigh Gillis)
