- ★ A January 8, 2014 note from Rev. Dave Winters while he was in Guatemala:

"FYI We visited El Buen Pastor today and I told them that our congregations in Heartland will (as per the Presbytery's prayer list) be praying for them and their obrera, Filomena Mejia, who, with Heartland's help, has now finished her 6th grade level work and is excited about starting 7th grade (in her late 40's) and is thrilled with the theological courses she is taking, aiming to be the first (or possibly 2nd) woman to be ordained in Maya Quiché Presbytery.... Amazingly, there were three times as many people there at the church to greet us as we have ever seen before. Filomena is doing a fantastic job, greatly enhanced by the empowerment of Heartland's scholarships and personal visits! There is a miracle here to be thankful for."

Attention all Clerks of Session: Don't forget to get your year-end statistical data entered through <http://oga.pcusa.org/stats>. Try to NOT use Internet Explorer because you will need to change some of your settings (complete instructions are at <http://oga.pcusa.org/stats>). PC(USA) suggests using Firefox, Chrome or a different internet connection software to input your statistical information. If you have trouble entering the data please contact the Heartland Presbytery office to have staff enter it for you. (NOTE: Your report will need to be submitted in writing, no verbal reports will be entered for you.) Follow this link to the Statistical Workbook that you can use to put together the necessary information. Clerks will also need to complete the Clerks Questionnaire for the Year Ending December 31, 2013. Follow this link to a working copy of those Questions. Additional documents are also needed by Heartland Presbytery. Those are available under the Announcements tab at www.heartlandpby.org and have been mailed out to all Clerks of Session.
